combining relaxation and discovery. What Guests Love The views over Cannes Port, the apartment's signature feature. The private terrace, perfect for enjoying the outdoors from the comfort of your own space. The apartment's natural brightness. The comfort of a separate bedroom with a double bed. The convenience of a fully equipped kitchen for meals at home. The perfect balance between exploring Cannes and enjoying relaxing moments at the apartment. The Cozystay Experience Here, luxury is first and foremost about simplicity, comfort and memorable moments. There is no need to overdo it: open the shutters, let the light in, admire the boats from the terrace and set out to discover Cannes on foot. The experience is all about feeling at home while enjoying an exceptional setting. To experience Cannes from a different perspective, let our local recommendations guide you: a favourite local restaurant, a Provençal market, a walk along the Mediterranean or a hidden gem where you can discover the city like a local rather than simply as a visitor. The Cozystay Spirit For more than 10 years, Cozystay has been an independent, family-run agency specialising in holiday rentals in Cannes. Led by Alexandre, a passionate holiday-rental professional with a deep connection to Cannes, our team of local experts knows the Cannes market, its neighbourhoods, its best addresses and the expectations of an international clientele. At Cozystay, we believe that a successful stay is about more than simply offering a beautiful apartment. It is also about quality hospitality, trust and genuine attention to every guest. Our commitment is built around a few simple values: exceptional service, responsibility, reliability, responsiveness and guest satisfaction. We are here before, during and after your stay to provide you with a smooth, personalised and worry-free experience. Book Your Stay in Cannes Dreaming of waking up overlooking the port and experiencing Cannes from a comfortable, bright and authentic home?
