beautiful views over La Croisette * An ideal choice for leisure stays, family getaways, trips with friends and business travel * A prime location for exploring Cannes on foot, with the beach, Palais des Festivals, restaurants, shopping and cultural attractions all within easy reach An address designed to experience Cannes From this apartment, you are right at the heart of the energy and atmosphere of Cannes. La Croisette, the Mediterranean, the beaches, the Palais des Festivals, restaurants and boutiques are all within easy reach. For a business stay, the location provides convenient access to the city's main congress and event venues. For a private getaway, it offers the freedom to discover Cannes on foot before returning to the peace and comfort of your apartment. Comfort & Privacy The apartment has been designed so that everyone can fully enjoy their stay. Each of the three bedrooms has its own private shower room and toilet, a particularly valuable feature for a group of six guests. The living room is the heart of the apartment: an elegant and bright space to relax and spend time together, while the open-plan kitchen makes it easy to prepare a meal or breakfast before heading out to explore Cannes. The terrace adds that extra dimension that turns a beautiful apartment into a true experience: the sea as your everyday backdrop and the Palais des Festivals right before your eyes. The new definition of luxury in Cannes Here, luxury is understated. It lies in the privilege of stepping outside and finding yourself immediately in the heart of Cannes. In enjoying breakfast overlooking the sea. In the privacy offered by three private shower rooms. In the space, the natural light and the unforgettable view. A memorable address, designed for those looking for more than just accommodation: a truly authentic Cannes experience. What guests will particularly appreciate * The unbeatable location directly opposite the Palais des Festivals * The sea and Palais views from the terrace * The comfort of 3 bedrooms, each with a private shower room and toilet * The apartment's natural light and generous living spaces * The opportunity to enjoy Cannes on foot * The rare combination of Cannes lifestyle, privacy and premium comfort * An address equally suited to congresses and holidays on the French Riviera The COZYSTAY Experience
